I Richard Young, of the Kohl's Loss Prevention Department deposes and says as follows:

On the 30th day of June 2012 at about 12:00 pm at 220 E RT 59, Nanuet, NY 10954 (Kohl's), in the Town of Clarkstown, County of Rockland, State of New York, the defendant committed the offenses of:

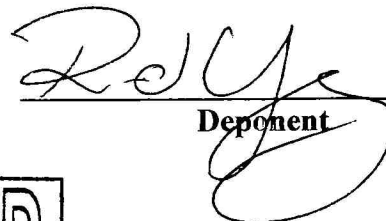

1. PL 155.25 Petit Larceny
2. PL 165.40 Criminal Possession of Stolen Property 5th Degree ✓

In that the defendant stole property and did knowingly possess stolen property with the intent to benefit a person other than an owner of the property and to impede recovery by an owner thereof.

The offenses were committed under the following circumstances:

Deponent states he observed the defendant select numerous pieces of Kohl's merchandise. Deponent states defendant then went into misses fitting room with the merchandise. Deponent observed Defendant exit the fitting room which then was inspected by Kelly Farewell and confirmed no merchandise was left in the fitting room but recovered price tags to the merchandise defendant entered the fitting room with. Deponent states the defendant passed all points of sale and then exited the store without paying for the merchandise. Deponent contacted Clarkstown Police and advised them Defendant was leaving in a Silver Lexus bearing NY registration ELV-3031. Deponent identified the stolen merchandise as Kohl's property to Clarkstown Police officer, P.O. K. Quinn, subsequent to his car stop on Smith Street near the parking lot exit. Deponent states defendant was in possession of 4 units totaling $85.00. Deponent states he is the custodian of the property and that the defendant did not have permission or authority to take or possess the property removed.

NOTE: False statements made herein are punishable as a Class A Misdemeanor pursuant to section 210.45 of the penal law.
